

Making a Difference in Air

January 10th, 2023

To Our Valued Customers & Partners:

For the past 75 years, we've met you where you are. From our old Johnson Heating Supply boiler service store in NE Portland to the digital universe with the Johnson Air Products online store. We've met you at your office with breakfast burritos, on a jobsite roof at the coast, on a cell phone after hours.

We've made connections and friends and memories because you're more than customers to us. You are us. The hard hats, the hard working, the ones that keep this industry and community strong.

Thank you for meeting us where we are. We've made a difference in air because you've made a difference to us.
